

ROUTE 66 SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

College Level Announcement

An invitation for college students to promote The Mother Roa

Perspective and current college students are invited to dig into their creative energy by submitting an entry in the Route 66 Podcast Scholarship program. An award in the amount of $1000 will be given to one student who is able to promote and preserve Route 66 through their own interpretation. Applicants are encouraged to listen to past episodes of The Route 66 Podcast for ideas and topics that may be of interest as a starting point. Students do not need to live along Route 66 but simply have an interest in promoting the spirit of Route 66.

The guidelines for this event are purposely open ended to accommodate all interested students and applicants who are encouraged to be as creative as possible, as long as the finished product meets the criteria of both promoting and preserving historic Route 66. Projects may include, but are not limited to the following submissions:

- ✓ Artwork
- ✓ Photograph
- ✓ Craft
- ✓ Interview
- ✓ Performance
- ✓ Music
- ✓ Video
- ✓ Multimedia Presentation (PowerPoint, Prezi, Canva, Google Slides, etc.)

Artwork, photographs, and crafts need to be physically submitted to Route 66 Podcast at 3840 Taylortown Road, Furlong, PA 18925. All other entries may be submitted digitally. All content submitted must be originally created by students.

One college level scholarship in the amount of $1000 will be paid directly to the college by Route 66 Podcast.

Please note the following:

- Students must be attending a two or four year college, university, or technical school in the spring of the 2024 academic year after receiving award.
